

Making a change to your Will

We always recommend that you seek advice from your solicitor when you make or change your Will. If you have already made a Will and now wish to include a gift to Shelter Scotland, it is often more straightforward to make the addition by asking your solicitor to draw up a new Will. Alternatively you can complete a Codicil, an example of which is given below, and take it to your solicitor who can advise you on the best way for your wishes to be carried out.

Shelter Scotland does not recommend that you make a Codicil without consulting a solicitor, who should ensure that any Codicil made is executed correctly and properly reflects your intentions. Please do not write on or amend your current Will, as this could make it invalid.
