

'If I didn't get help from Shelter then I don't know where I would be.'

Thousands of people across the country are facing appalling housing conditions and homelessness this Christmas.

Make supporting Shelter your Christmas tradition and together we can help families facing bad housing and homelessness.

